EARLY MORNING NEWS

A Bold Bank Robbery. At Norwood, N. Y., on Saturday, Charles Phelps, a dissolute young resident of that place, who is said to have recently become place, who is said to have recently become an optum eater, went into the Norwood Bank and asked for some stamps. The cashier went into the vault to get them, when Phelps shut and locked the door, took $378—all the paper money he could find—and started for Canada. A enstower soon came in, released the cashier, and Pholps was caught before he reached the haven of crooks across the border.

. Put Up Or Be Shut Up. Recorder Smyth yesterday, in the Cour officiencial Sessions of New York, fixed ball in the case of the Electric sugar swindlers at $7,000 on each Indictment. There are three indictments against each of the accused, and this makes $21,000 ball to be given for each prisoner.

Conl Rates.

The price of coal, as it is to be fixed for the season, is causing a great deal of uncasiness among interested parties. At the meeting in New York of the sales agents to-day it is said that the Reading will attempt to maintain winter rates the entire year. Restriction of the output is also demanded by certain parties, and it is likely to cause a jar.

A Big Publishing Firm. A Big Publishing Firm.

The South Atlantic Telegraph Company of Baltimore has been incorporated, with a of Baltimore has been incorporated, with a capital stock of $50,000. It is said that the new company is to form a link in the Mackay-Bennett Postal Telegraph and Cable Company system, and is for the purpose of purchasing and owning the lines of that system in Maryland, which are now only leased. The scheme embraces an amalgamation with the Southern Telegraph Company of Virginia, the Southern Telegraph Company of North Carolina and the Southern Atlantic Telegraph Company, whereby lines of wire may be secured extending to New Orleans and covering the entire South and Southwest. This entire system is to be controlled by the Mackay-Bennett management.

Changes in St. Paul.

Changes in St. Paul. A meeting of directors of the St. Paul road is called for to-morrow, at which imroad is called for to-morrow, at which important developments are expected. It is generally understood that several of the present directors will resign, and that representatives of banking interests will take their places. The fact that the presence of neither Armour nor Plankinton is anticipated is considered an indication that both of them will retire. It is generally believed that J. Pierpont Morgan will be one of the new directors. In addition to the election of new directors the board will consider the declaration of a dividend on the preferred stock out of the earnings of the six months ending December 31, 1888.

Ratie Rooney, Pat's daughter, received a letter, which Pat thought had been sent to her by a stranger. The girl refused to show it to him, and this made Pat angry. He immediately proceeded to get drunk and abuse the female members of his company. Mrs. Howard, one of the actresses, finally cooled him down by hitting him on the head with a chair. An officer was called, but when he arrived Pat had disappeared. He had not been arrested at last reports. Several members of the company declare that they will not go any further, and it is thought the company will disband.

PARASOLS.—In the new stock, which will go on sale for the first time to morrow morn-ing, we show the most artistic productions of the new season's shapes and styles.

It was thought last season that no advance-ment in the manufacture of Parasols was possible, yet this season's productions are as distinctively different and more like works of art than anything yet conceived in this line.

line. The "La Tosen" handles rendily take front rank as the most fashionable, and are quaintly finished at the end with large natural root rings, shepherd crooks, ball-twisted roots, natural wood knobs and a variety of other odd and beautiful cramentations too other odd and beautiful ornamentations too numerous to mention.

Most of these are imported Parasols, and represent the best efforts of the celebrated firm of Follmer, Clogg. & Co., and we will show about seventy-five of their extreme "Noveities," of which there are no two alike, and a great many of which will not be duplicated this season; hence ladies of taste who desire something entirely new and exclusive should make an immediate selection.

As an illustration of the skill and progress now predominant in the manufacture of Fine Parasols we have only to herald the fact that small trees are now cultivated expressly for handles; many of them have their roots twisted while they are growing, in order to obtain the oddities and shapes you so much admire.

The styles are also quite varied, set the ma-
